

The Smokin' Saga

A Long Long Time Ago....
In A Galaxy To Far Away...

Wait, Wrong Story. This, folks, is the story of how we got started Bar B Queuing for all of you...

In 1989 our friend Dean Rivenburg and some buddies decided to start a competitive BBQ team and work the County Fairs and Festivals of North-East Georgia.

After a lot of hard work and great successes in competition cooking, he decided to devote himself to his passion for BBQ Full Time. He purchased a catering trailer in 1998 and set up shop at the intersection of Hwy. 316 and Winder Hwy. in Dacula, Georgia. During this time he amassed a following which would make our BBQ legendary in this neck of the woods.

In 2003, the opportunity arose for him to set up a permanent location just up the road in Winder, Georgia. It was with Great fan fare that Winder Welcomed the award winning BBQ.

In 2007, Chef Michael Welch joined the team. Chef Michael is a Winder Local, who went to Culinary school in Birmingham (A BBQ Mecca) Alabama, where he worked in a BBQ Restaurant while in school. Under Chef Michael's direction Smokin' Po Boys continues the tradition of Great southern style BBQ, with a friendly home-grown Atmosphere.

If you are reading this, you have probably already tasted how good BBQ can be. Thank you for your business and God Bless!
